Chapter 8 • Badr – Sacred Sites

8.1 The Battle of Badr

17 Ramadan, 2 AH – Islam’s first and decisive battle. Approximately 130 km south-west of Madinah. Muslims: 313 (2 horses, 70 camels) vs Quraysh: 1,000.

The goal was the caravan, not battle – but the Quraysh imposed war. Allah sent 1,000 angels for aid – 70 disbelievers were killed, 70 taken captive, and 14 Muslims were martyred.

8.2 Masjid al-Areesh

Located near the battlefield of Badr – where the Prophet ﷺ prayed with such intensity on the day of Badr that his cloak slipped from his shoulders – Hazrat Abu Bakr RA comforted him: “O Messenger of Allah ﷺ, Allah will fulfil His promise.”

“When you were calling upon your Lord for help, He responded to you: I will reinforce you with a thousand angels, one following another.”

Surah Al-Anfal (8:9)
